New to watercolours?

Or are you struggling with technique?

Do you want to loosen up?

If you are trying too hard to achieve the perfect painting and would love to loosen up - I would like to show you some techniques to help you do just that in your future work!

My workshops - both studio based and online, are aimed at people who want to 'loosen up' and be freer. I paint in such a way as to draw the viewer in, to let them decipher certain elements and therefore, lots of detail need not be laboured over.

Cost: £35

Price Includes:

- A link to the online workshop where you can stop and start whenever you wish and take it at your own pace
- A comprehensive set of notes (supplied as a pdf file) outlining the course content
 - A materials list
 - A list of tips and techniques covered
- Access any time to suit you, watch it time and time again and no limit to the number of people who can join.
 - Invitation to a private online Facebook group where you can share your experience and experiments with other like minded people. (As this is more of a practice session, a formal critique is NOT included.)
